

RISD's Forum on Art + Design Collegiate Teaching examines teaching and learning in all art and design disciplines and is open to faculty and graduate students for professional advancement in teaching. The Forum is funded by the Spencer Foundation.

The Spencer Foundation is committed to investigate ways in which education, broadly conceived, can be improved around the world. It has been dedicated to the belief that research is necessary to the improvement in education. The Foundation is thus committed to supporting high-quality investigation of education through its research programs and to strengthening and renewing the educational research community through its fellowship and training programs and related activities.
