Artist-In-Residence (Fixed-Term)

Central Michigan University

Central Michigan University and the Department of Art & Design Barstow Artist-in-Residence program invite applications for a fixed-term faculty as Artist-in-Residence for the Fall 2017 semester. Term of employment is August 2017 through December 2017.

The position includes a $14,000 stipend with benefits and private housing. These accommodations are surrounded by nature on the banks of the Chippewa River and designed by noted architect Stephen L. Barstow. The house provided for the Artist-in-Residence is located 15 miles from Mt. Pleasant, includes a large private studio, and requires personal transportation to and from campus provided by the artist.

We are seeking an energetic, self-directed, practicing artist interested in mentoring art students. The residency provides artists the time and space to work creatively. In return, CMU students are provided valuable access to educational opportunities outside of the existing curriculum and faculty.

Qualifications: MFA or equivalent in area of specialization.
